

My family and I listen to Air 1 radio every day. It provides an alternative to secular music for listeners. I believe that this alternative plays a role in the molding of character. My children and I are not subject to the lude comments of secular DJ's or the music played on those stations. If Air 1 were not available to our community, we would be forced to turn off our radios.

Sincerely, Darcy Sare